Chinese plan Viet occupation

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — Chinese officials were quoted Monday as saying their troops would occupy some territory held by the Vietnamese before China's invasion of Vietnam.

Bangkok analysts confirmed that the Chinese slowly are pulling out of Vietnam. But one highly placed source said Chinese officials here told diplomats that their forces would occupy some "bases" from which the Vietnamese allegedly staged raids into China.

Meanwhile, Vietnam, after recalling some 10,000 troops from Cambodia and units from Laos and southern Vietnam, appeared to be reaching the peak of its military build-up in the north.

Iranian women defy Islam rule

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — About 10,000 chanting Iranian women, guarded by armed Marxist People's Fedayeen militiamen, marched in Tehran Monday in the fourth day of protest against loss of freedoms under Iran's new Islamic rulers.

Marches also were reported in Abadan, in Iran's southern oil region, and in the northwestern city of Tabriz.

Moslem zealots, who attacked several women in a Friday protest in Tehran, stayed behind cordons strung by men accompanying the marchers. The zealots, some wearing the traditional head-to-ankle black "chador," carried posters of Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini and shouted "prostitutes" and "naked women" at the marchers.

Several chador-clad women passed out handbills condemning the marchers' Western-style dress and their wish to compete with men.

Group reports radiation hazard

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Health Research Group of consumer-advocate Ralph Nader's Public Citizen organization asked President Carter on Monday to reduce the allowable radiation exposure of nuclear powerplant workers to one tenth the present standards.

The Health Research Group cited a study in Britain which found increased damage to the chromosomes of British workers exposed to lower levels of radiation than are permitted by U.S. work standards.

Sidney M. Wolfe, director of the group, said in an interview that the British study did not determine whether the chromosome damage would cause cancer and other radiation-linked diseases to the workers, or genetic damage to their children, because not enough time has gone by for these effects to show up clearly.

Taiwan hostage returns to U.S.

BOUNTIFUL, Utah (AP) — Anthony Kuan is back with his family in Bountiful after being unable to leave his native Taiwan since November.

Kuan and his family have lived in the United States three years. He went to Taiwan in November to take care of unfinished business, and planned to be back in Bountiful Dec. 20.

But, within three days of his arrival, he was told by the government that he would not be allowed to leave until his sons Clifford, 21, and Gordon, 20, returned to Taiwan for military service.

The sons are serving Mormon missions.

Rep. Dan Marriott, R-Utah, during a private goodwill visit to Taiwan in late January, checked into Kuan's plight.

He was told Kuan could return with him if Kuan promised to have his sons return to Taiwan immediately, or could wait for cabinet action on a proposed change in the law which would not require their return.

They promised Marriott they would expedite Kuan's return and waive the requirement for his sons to serve in the military, said Kuan's wife, Vivien.

LeBaron follower testifies

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Prosecution witness Donald Eugene Sullivan testified Monday that the killing of Dr. Rulon Allred and an attempt on the life of another polygamist leader came as a result of a revelation from God to Ervil LeBaron.

Sullivan's testimony came in the trial of four persons charged in the death of Allred, a naturopathic physician and father of 40, who was gunned down by two persons May 10, 1977, at his suburban Salt Lake City office.

Charged with second-degree murder, attempted murder and conspiracy are Rena Chynoweth, her brother Mark, and Edward Marston. Victor Chynoweth, another brother, is charged with conspiracy.

Sullivan, a former member of LeBaron's polygamist group, the Church of the Lamb of God, has pleaded guilty to conspiracy in Allred's death and has been granted immunity from further prosecution in exchange for his testimony.

The prosecution claims LeBaron ordered the killing of Allred and an attempt on the life of his brother, Verlan LeBaron, to increase his wealth and power. Verlan LeBaron is a leader of the Church of the Firstborn of the Fullness of Times.

Defense attorneys have alleged that Sullivan masterminded the Allred assassination and attempt to kill Verlan LeBaron.

In testimony Friday, Sullivan described how a five-member death squad including himself, Ms. Chynoweth, Jack Strothman, Marston and Marston's wife Ramona, carried out the Allred shooting and an aborted attempt on LeBaron's life at Allred's funeral.

The Daily Universe

It's worth looking into, BYU—daily

The Daily Universe is not just an exercise for a few ambitious students. Nor is it a futile attempt to plagiarize the New York Times.

Let's look deeper: The Daily Universe is a very successful publication, rated as the fifth largest campus daily in the U.S. It is directed towards a large audience—you, the BYU students. You are a unique and distinctive group of people, comprised of individuals with different interests and abilities, yet bonded together with common ideals.

The Daily Universe recognizes your individuality and designs its format towards you, not after some hometown local or metropolitan daily.

You may be interested in news and current affairs. You may enjoy cultural events or seeing a good movie. Sports and competitive games may be your real love. Whatever your tastes, the Daily Universe is there to serve you.

Still, not everyone enjoys the same things in a newspaper. That's why the Universe tried to balance its content.

When you look in the Universe you'll find: News, Sports, Entertainment, Editorial Pages (Wed. and Fri.), Photo Pages, "On The Tube", Editorial cartoons, "Peanuts", and lots more.

Remember the Daily Universe is your paper, so look into it closely—and see what it offers you.

But his life could never be the same. The cancer cropped up again. Two radical surgeries, another minor operation and a doctor saying you have a good chance of dying can harm a positive mental attitude.

Stucki was in and out of the hospital during the rest of his high school years, but he managed to graduate with honors. By the time he was 19 he had enough strength to serve as a missionary for the LDS Church in the Canada Toronto Mission. He still had to check in with the doctor every month, but he was able to finish his two-year mission without any complications.

After his mission Stucki returned to St. George and attended Dixie College. He married Fran Esplin last St. Patrick's Day, and they now have a baby boy.

Stucki attends BYU on an academic scholarship and is majoring in business management. "One of my goals is to become a millionaire," he said. "I want to be sure my wife and family are taken care of in case anything happens to me. I've got to hurry and make it, too. In my condition you never know how much time you have."

are problems

Star Palace faced with second suit

By DEANA LLOYD
Universe Staff Writer

Star Palace faced yet another snag with disclosure of a second suit filed against the problem-disco.

The suit was filed by Peay Investment Company of Provo in 4th District Court, alleging patrons of the Star Palace have been parking in the lots of Durfey Cleaners, Stan's Drive-Inn and an alley behind the Amoco gas station located next to the drive-inn.

All of these areas are owned by the investment company.

Star Palace is only required to have 75 parking stalls, and there are 400 to 500 cars trying to park at the disco, said Provo Zoning Administrator Dave Gardner.

The suit asks for an injunction preventing people from parking in Peay's parking areas and for $175,000 in damages covering alleged loss of business.

"We have really been trying to work with them since October," said Robert Peay of Peay Investment Co. "For about 30 days they did work on the parking problem and keeping our properties clear, but then they quit."

According to Peay, of the 75 parking spaces required by the city, maybe 30 are on property owned by Ross Anderson and Brent Weeks, the owners of Star Palace. "Of the ones they have, 11 are on the right of way and 23 are on our property," he said.

"Anderson has taken the position that he hasn't any control over where his customers are parking," Peay said. "He told me that he would tie the case up in the courts. I told him okay all I need to do is put up a fence and that would alleviate my parking problem."

Peay added that he expected the city to back him up.

The Star Palace claims to have a letter from Durfey Cleaners allowing them to use their parking lot. "I saw a letter dealing with the parking, but I couldn't attest to whether it was from Durfey or not," Gardner said.

Peay said Durfey does not have the right to say the disco can use that parking lot because Durfey leases the land from his investment company.

The Star Palace has more problems than parking. The pipe for the sprinkling system runs across a right of way owned by Peay Investment Company. "I am going to put a stop to the problems we are having with them," Peay said. "I may get an injunction to have the pipe removed."

The Star Palace didn't have the right to put in the pipe, said Peay, because the agreement is only for access to the Star Palace property from 600 North. Anderson and Weeks also failed to get the city's permission before installing the pipe.

"We didn't give them permission, they did it on their own," said Merrill Bingham, director of water and waste water. "I wanted them to go from 900 East; it would have been a shorter line, and it all would have been on their property."

The only contact the city had with the disco on the pipe was when city employees tapped the main on 600 North for the sprinkler pipe, Bingham said.

Star Palace is also involved in a suit with Jarvis and Sons Electric Co. of Provo which asks payment of $20,478 for building materials and supplies.

Meanwhile, the disco's earlier reported difficulties with the Delta Fire Sprinkling System of Salt Lake City have apparently been worked out. "We are back working at full force," said Stan Robinson of Delta Fire Sprinkling System. "We expect to be finished by March 15."

FCC strives to right religious ban rumor

By TOM MILLER
Universe Staff Writer

Members of the Federal Communications Commission are up to the neck in mail with letters from people who are concerned about the commission putting an end to religious broadcasting.

letters arrived, we have been swamped with mail from all parts of the country. A great many of the letters contained petitions with as many as 10,000 names," said Ginsburg.

He said he wished there was some way to stop the flow of letters which are based upon misinformation.

The LDS Church News and The Daily Universe have printed articles to try and put a stop to this needless petitioning, but it hasn't seemed to work. Flyers continue to float throughout Utah Valley, asking residents to write to the FCC and urge them to stop the action.

Ms. Pennington also received a letter from the Commission's Complaint Department confirming that the rumors are false.

Ms. Pennington, a second year law student from Chevy Chase, Maryland, said she was quite skeptical when she received a form to fill out in Relief Society. "I went to the law books, but I couldn't find anything on the subject so I called Washington D.C. and got in touch with Martha Cotee in the Consumer Assistance Office and she told me the rumors are false."

Ms. Pennington also received a letter from the Commission's Complaint Department confirming that the rumors are false.

Elder Faust will address students at Y Devotional

James E. Faust, the newest member of the LDS Church's Council of Twelve, will speak in today's devotional assembly at 10 a.m. in the Y Center.

Public is invited to the assembly. Dr. Ralph Woodward will lead a Cappella Choir singing "O Lord, Our God, Arise."

The devotional will be broadcast live on KBYU-TV and telecast tonight on KBYU radio.

at 8 on KBYU-TV, Channel 11, and rebroadcast on both stations Sunday, at 9 p.m.

Elder Faust was called to the Council of the Twelve on Oct. 1, 1978, after serving in the Presidency of the First Quorum of the Seventy for two years.

Elder Faust is a native of Delta, Utah. He served as a missionary for the church.

$500,000 pulls in Y voters

The statement, "$500,000 Is No Joke!" heads a little yellow card placed on the tables in the Cougar area by members of the elections committee who are encouraging greater voter turnout.

The fact that such a large amount of money is spent through student government should make students more interested in who gets elected, said Elections Committee chairman Paul Brown.

"The Executive Council actually decides where the money goes, and it makes a lot of difference which candidate is elected," he said.

"Because of their (the candidates) differing interests," he said, "you will have differing emphasis on financial expenditures. Every candidate has their own favorite programs."

Bill Setze, executive assistant in the Financial Office, said "a potential of up to $900,000 dollars can come through student government per year." Setze said much of the budget is determined by the Social Office. "I would say that in excess of 50 percent of the money that goes through ASBYU goes through the Social Office," he said.

Setze said, "although difficult, it is possible that a council member could misappropriate funds."

Brown said ASBYU has seen a lot of interest in the elections this year. "We are pleased with it," he said, "and we expect a larger turnout in the final election than in our primary elections."

BYU's number one singles competitor Maria Rothschild returns a serve on her way to a 6-1, 6-2 victory over Yale's Kathy Dalton. Rothschild's win helped BYU to their 8-1 finish.

Lady netters bounce Yale

The BYU women's tennis team took on the best the east has to offer yesterday, and thoroughly trounced them 8-1. The match with Yale, last year's eastern division champion, was decided by two factors, according to both coaches; concentration and conditioning.

Of course the caliber of the players figured among the decisive factors too, as was displayed in the number one singles match between Cougar Maria Rothschild and Kathy Dalton. "She's about a level above what I can handle," Dalton said after losing 6-1, 6-2.

While the number one singles match was being decided, freshmen Charlene Murphy and Diana Piotrow were battling it out for the number two singles title. Murphy won the first set 6-2, lost the second 2-6, then came back in the third set to win 6-1.

In the number three singles match, Tracy Tanner went through Cilia Moffie in straight sets, 6-3, 6-3 sets. Then in the fifth spot, Barbara Barnes also took her match with Caroline McAlister in straight sets, 7-5, 6-4.

The only Cougar loss came at the number six position, when Lori Barlow lost to Stacey Reily, 7-5, 1-6, 1-6.

The fourth singles match was the afternoon's longest. BYU's Lani Wilcox and Natalya Smith exchanged the first two sets, 6-3, 5-7 before Wilcox took the last set, which was decided by a 5-1 tie-breaker, to end the day's singles competition.

The number four singles match was so long in fact, that after the team of Tanner and Rothschild downed Dalton and Piotrow, the coaches decided to shorten doubles competition by using pro sets. BYU took both pro sets, Murphy and Barnes beating Moffie and Smith 8-2, and Wilcox and Mindy Watts winning over Ellis and McAlister, 8-4 to finish the match.

Y women bowlers win invitational

BYU's women's bowling team combined for a 7,427 pin total to capture the ladies team title of the Brigham Young University Bowling Invitational Tournament held over the weekend.

The Cougar men didn't fare quite so well, placing fifth in their competition, with 8,255 points. Utah State was the overall men's winner, totaling 8,747 pins.

In other tournament action, College of Great Falls' Steve Martin took the all-events title, rolling a total of 2,548 pins for an average of 212. Arizona's Shari Kelly was the women's winner in the event with 2,137 and a 178 pin average.

Martin and Utah State's Fred Holbeck tied for the tourney's high game honors, both rolling scores of 268. Boise State's Mary Schaffer was the women's high game winner with a score of 234.

The Cougars' Liz West was the women's high series bowler, as well as the top singles bowler, with scores of 578 in each event. Holbeck, like West, was also a double winner in the two competitions, rolling scores of 722.

Man sentenced for assault

By RICHARD BURGSTROM
Universe Staff Writer

A Provo man was taken to the Utah State Prison Monday to commence serving a sentence for the aggravated assault of a BYU coed.

Lennard R. Lipsky, 25, 803 S. State, was sentenced Friday to one to five years in prison by Judge J. Robert Bullock, 4th District Court. Bullock also ordered that $100 restitution be made to the victim. Lipsky pleaded guilty at a Dec. 8 trial to charges relating to the Oct. 16, 1978 assault.

LENNARD LIPSKY

Robert W. Kelshaw, chief of BYU Security, said the assaulted BYU student was walking on the ramp on the southeast corner of the Smith Fieldhouse shortly before 10 p.m. when the attack occurred. Two other BYU students heard the victim scream, saw Lipsky come out of the bushes, and pursued him. The students, Karl B. Barksdale, a senior in history from Salt Lake City, and Alan Taylor, a junior in zoology from Rigby, Idaho, grabbed Lipsky when he lost control of the bike he was riding and crashed into a telephone pole, Taylor said.

BYU Security officers arrested Lipsky at the scene and he was arraigned the next day in Eighth Circuit Court. In the subsequent preliminary hearing, Judge E. Patrick McGuire bound Lipsky over to 4th District Court, where he pleaded not guilty Nov. 3 to the third degree felony.

At the scheduled Dec. 8 trial, Lipsky changed his plea to guilty and was sent to the Utah State Prison while Adult Probation and Parole authorities conducted a 90-day presentence evaluation.

On Jan. 30 Lipsky was admitted to the Utah State Hospital for evaluation in the sexual offender program. Provo police picked him up after one week, but because of the brief admission time, no evaluation was completed. Terry K. Jensen, treatment coordinator of the sexual offender program said.

At Lipsky's trial his lawyer, Sheldon Carter, public defender, asked the judge to send the 25-year-old back to the Utah State Hospital. Judge Bullock said he was reluctant to force the defendant upon the hospital, since Lipsky had been placed in the sex offender program at the hospital and was released before completing it.

The 90 days Lipsky spent in jail while the presentence evaluation was conducted will not apply to his sentence, authorities said.

Yell-leader, cheerleader tryouts

There is an orientation meeting at 7 p.m. in 347 ELWC for students who want to be cheerleaders or yell-leaders. Requirements and plans for the tryouts will be discussed.

Einstein lecture

The 100th anniversary of Albert Einstein's birth will be commemorated in a special lecture today at noon in 357 ELWC. The lecture, "Einstein's Centenary: Where Are We Now, Relatively Speaking?" will be given by Dr. B. Kent Harrison, chairman of BYU's Physics and Astronomy Department. The presentation is sponsored by BYU's Chapter of Sigma Xi, the scientific research society, as part of its "Research Paper of the Month" series. "The talk will be geared to the non-specialist," said Donald R. Snow, BYU Sigma Xi president-elect.

Married couples needed

A student in BYU's Bio-Ag college needs married couples to participate in research on infertility. Contact Ryan McKinnon, 377-5556.

Physics seminar

John Deford from the University of Utah will be speaking on "C.A.I. (Computer-assisted instruction) authoring for Non-computer Nuts" at the Physics seminar Wednesday at 4:10 p.m. in 241 ESC.

Chemistry seminar

Dr. Edward M. Eyring of the University of Utah will discuss "Xenite Cages to Capture Cations" today at 3:15 p.m. in 230 ESC.

Honors Fine Arts Night

The Honors Program Fine Arts Night will be tonight and Wednesday night from 8-10 in 115 MCKB. The evening will include individual performances, the world premiere of the play, "The Mother of Jesus" translated and directed by Dr. Gary Browning with an all Honors cast, and a brief discussion with the cast and refreshments.

Biofeedback program

The BYU Counseling Center will begin a 5-week biofeedback-stress management program Thursday for all interested students. Biofeedback procedures will be taught to help students more effectively deal with their daily pressures. Students who are interested in learning how to use biofeedback or students who want relief from specific symptoms like headaches, anxiety attacks, and nervousness are invited to attend. Interested students should meet Thursday at 4 p.m. in C-235 ASB. More information may be obtained from Dr. Mike Maughan ext. 4062.

Supreme Court Justice to speak about lawyers

Justice Richard J. Maughan of the Utah Supreme Court will be the guest speaker at the initiation activities of Phi Alpha Delta International Law Fraternity today.

Maughan, a member of the fraternity, will speak on "Lawyers and Society's Need for Them" at 4 p.m. in the Moot Court Room, JRCB.

Maughan received his B.S. at Utah State University in 1948 and his J.D. at the University of Utah. He is a member of the Utah bar and the Federal District Court, Court of Appeals, and Supreme Court bars. In his 28 years as an attorney he has served as Assistant to the Attorney General and has had a private law practice. He was appointed to the Supreme Court of Utah in 1975.

In addition to his professional responsibilities, Maughan served as a member of the Utah State Board of Regents, was on the Executive Committee of the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education and a candidate for Congress in 1968.

He has authored several articles, of his most recent being "The Role of the Utah State University in Vocational and Technical Education, 1888-1975 and beyond."

Post office costs taxpayers $6,210

ROSELAND, Ark. (AP) — Cobwebs and dust line most of the boxes at the post office serving the 18 families who still pick up their mail in this northeast Arkansas farming hamlet.

It cost taxpayers $6,210 to keep the office open last year — five times more than the revenue it generated — although there are other post offices four miles in either direction.

And, like many other rural post offices around the country, it has survived recent efforts to close it during a movement to make the U.S. Postal Service self-sufficient.

Error corrected in blood drive story

A story in the Universe incorrectly stated that a blood drive on campus last week was sponsored by BYU's Army ROTC and Angel Flight. The drive was actually sponsored by BYU's ROTC and the Sponsor Corps, not Angel Flight.

Roseland Postmaster Richard Rose, 52, who has been postmaster here 28 years, admits his rural post office loses money, but he doesn't want to see it closed.

The post office is located in 250 square feet of space in the Roseland Gin Co. offices along Arkansas Highway 18.

According to Rose's figures, it cost $6,210 to run the post office. During that period the post office generated $1,100 in income.

Spring bicycle care advised

WASHINGTON (AP) — Many Americans are breaking out their bicycles from winter storage to hit the road both for fun and exercise.

The Consumer Product Safety Commission recommends a thorough check of the bike, tightening or adjusting any loose parts.

Earn enough money this summer to live on all next year.

A good summer income can make a lot of things possible: freedom from part-time jobs during the school year. A chance to get that stereo you've always wanted. An opportunity to save for a mission or even marriage.

We're Eagle Marketing Corporation and we offer a summer employment opportunity second to none. Last year, our average employee earned over $4,000 for three months work.

Not only is the compensation and the environment excellent, but we provide an exciting training school where you'll learn valuable skills from some of the top businessmen in the country. This year, the training school will be held at Park City.

Forget minimum wage-type jobs this summer and earn what you're really worth. With Eagle Marketing Corporation, it's far more than you've ever thought possible.

You may be the type of person we're looking for. Call 225-9000 for an interview.

Festival of Arts features 41 events

Forty-one events ranging from film festivals to the 11th annual Mormon Festival of Arts, to be held at BYU March 16 through April 6.

These events include the Mormon Festival of Arts Ball, 13 concerts, four plays, five plays, six lectures, three symposiums, four exhibits, two film festivals, two dance presentations, and an opera.

The events during the Mormon Festival of Arts are sponsored by 13 different departments on campus. The events will begin March 13, with the pre-ball concert, and continue through April 17.

The Mormon Festival of Arts Ball, including a pre-ball concert, grand auction, art exhibit, numerous musical and theatrical performances in addition to the ball, will officially open the Mormon Festival of Arts March 16. The ball will be in the HFAC at 9 p.m. The BYU's A Cappella Choir and Marimba Band, as well as BYU voice instructor Joan Lathrop, will perform during the pre-ball concert at 8 p.m. Winners of the Mormon Festival of Arts music competition will perform during the musical presentation at 9:30 p.m.

BYU's Symphony Orchestra and Jazz Ensemble will provide music for the ball.

Festival concerts include presentations by BYU's A Cappella Choir, jazz group Synthesis and Philharmonic Orchestra.

Festival plays include Magic Carpet Stories and Lamp at Midnight. Stories is a children's play of how earthlings use poems and stories to explain the earth to creatures from outer space, and Lamp is the story of Galileo's soul-searching struggle to reconcile science with religion.

BYU's art department is sponsoring a symposium, "Art, Artists & Church — Identity, Entity & Taxonomy," that features a panel of noted art experts, including Thomas Rogers, Arthure Bassett, Linda Sillitoe, Don Marshall and Alex Darais.

Festival dance events include a children's dance concert and a performance by BYU's Ballet Company.

The Festival will also feature

Regina, an opera version of Little Foxes. The opera takes place in an Alabama setting during spring 1900.

For more information about tickets for Mormon Festival of Arts Ball and for music events, phone 375-7788. Ticket information about theatrical events can be obtained by calling 375-5050.

Nielsen named police council

Police Chief Swen Nielsen has been named chairman of the Utah Peace Officers Standards and Training Council.
 A 22-member council is appointed on a non-renewal basis by Gov. Scott Matheson and is made up of private citizens, law enforcement officers and officials.
 Nielsen said the purpose of the council is to act as an advisory group to state law enforcement administrators.

900 East to be reconstructed

By DEANA LLOYD
 Universe Staff Writer

The purchase of a $56,000 time deposit certificate for improvements along 900 East was authorized by the Provo City Commission during Monday's meeting.

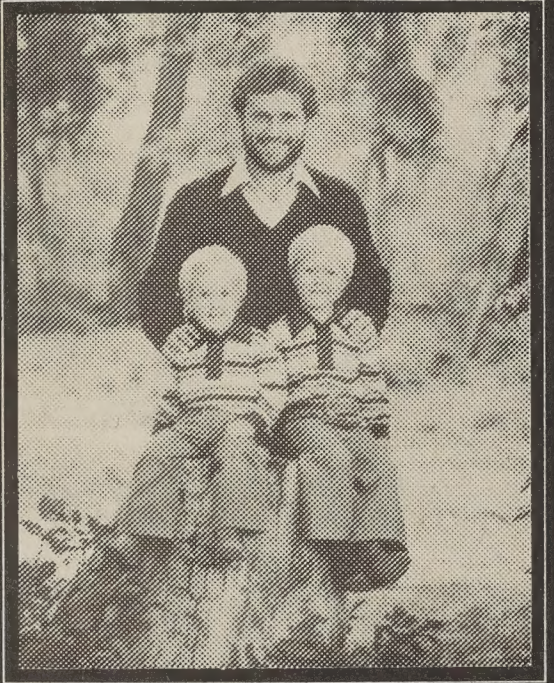

The money will cover Provo's share of the cost to widen and resurface the road. The commission signed an agreement with Utah Department of Transportation (UDOT) that gives them the task of construction engineering.

The street will be widened and reconstructed and new sidewalks and gutters will be put in, said City Commissioner J. Earl Wignall.

The construction on the road should start around May 1, according to Joel Harrison of the Provo City Engineering Department.

On a motion from Commissioner Anagene Meecham, the city commission canceled the March 29 commission meeting. Mayor James E. Ferguson and Commissioner Meecham will be attending a law enforcement workshop in Denver, Colo. on maintaining community integrity.

During Monday's meeting, the commission also established a construction fund for Riverside and Exchange Parks. The money for this fund will come from the Provo-Jordan River Parkway Authority and the Community Development Block Grant fund.

Department not added

A story printed in The Daily Universe March 8 incorrectly stated that a new department in the School of Management had been formed. Delora Bertelsen, administrative assistant to Dean Merrill Bateman, said a story on the creation of a new position in the school incorrectly reported a new department had been formed. Instead, a new position in the existing department was formed to cope with growth.

The new position will be filled by Terry Nels Lee, assistant professor in the School of Management. He has been appointed undergraduate director for the Business Management Department.
 The Universe regrets the error.

Workshops to teach communication skills

By KIM SMITH
Universe Staff Writer

Improving communication skills in all aspects of life is the basic theme for winter semester's Communications Lab Workshop Series.

The series, which begins today and continues through April 12, is designed to improve individuals and their interpersonal relationships.

Dr. Richard A. Heaps, coordinator of the workshop, said the purpose of the series is "to give the student an opportunity to get exposure to communication skills and receive help in learning how to apply those skills in various practical settings."

"The first series 'Mirror, Mirror on the Wall,' conducted by Mike Gibbs, manager of the Communications Lab, will use small group activities to explore how individuals view themselves. They will also discuss ways to increase self-esteem Tuesday from 2-4 p.m., 348 MARB.

Vern H. Jensen, professor of Educational Psychology, will discuss 'Myths Interfering With Communication in Marriage,' Wednesday from 2-4 p.m., 146 JKB.

"Nonverbal Communication, The 'Silent' Message," is the topic of a series Wednesdays from 3:10-4:30 p.m., B-257 ASB. The series will be conducted by Richard A. Heaps, associate professor of Educational Psychology.

Joan Kleinke, Walk-in Lab Manager of the Communications Lab, will conduct a series on 'Leadership,' Wednesdays from 2-4 p.m., 375 ELWC.

"Breaking Up is Hard to Do," a series conducted by Richard Shingleton, a graduate student in Educational Psychology, is designed to aid those who are coping with recent dissolution of a significant boy/girl relationship. The series will be conducted Thursdays from 7-9 p.m., 323 MCKB.

In the series "Join Together: Building the Team," participants will learn through experiments how to increase their skills in effective team work. This workshop, conducted by Norma Rohde, professor of Educational Psychology, is designed for anyone interested in working or living with a group that is satisfying and effective. It is Thursdays from 1-3 p.m., C-235 ASB.

Linda Brockbank and Cathy Freeland, graduate students in Educational Psychology, will be giving instructions designed to improve relationships among roommates. The workshop entitled, "Communicating to Resolve Roommate Conflicts," will be on Thursdays, 6-9 p.m., 3146 HBLL.

Paul Cook and Sally Barlow, both counseling psychologists in the Counseling Center, will be conducting a series on "Responsible Assertiveness," on Thursday from 3-5 p.m., 136 JKB.

Enoc Flores, Associate International Student Advisor, and James MacArthur, assistant professor in Career Education, will be conducting a series on "Intercultural Communication Problems in Employment Seeking" Wednesdays, 3-5 p.m., 240 BRMB, beginning March 21.

Another series "Reducing Worries Through Self Talk," is designed to identify negative self-talk which results in non-productive worry, and change it to positive self-talk. This workshop, March 24, will be from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., 3146 HBLL, and is being conducted by Dolores Larson and Deon Tsuya, graduate students in Educational Psychology.

Dale F. Pearson, associate professor in Social Work, will be conducting a series on "Your Emotional I.Q.," beginning March 21, from 3-4 p.m., 136 JKB.

The last workshop in the series will deal with "Problems of Intercultural Communication." Through this workshop, participants will gain an understanding of the problems in intercultural communication and then develop skills to improve communications in any intercultural situation. This series, will begin March 21, from 3-5 p.m., 240 BRMB. It will be conducted by Cheryl Brown, Instructor of Linguistics; Charlotte Lofgreen, assistant professor of Indian Education and Linguistics; Max Swenson, assistant professor of Church History and Doctrine; Con Osborne, associate professor of Indian Education and English; and Rush Sumpter, assistant professor of Indian Education and English.

The sign-up for workshops is at the Learning Services Center desk, in room 3126 HBLL. For further information call the Communications Lab, ext. 2911.

The Communications Lab is sponsored by CDFR, Communications, Educational Psychology, Psychology, Sociology and Social Work, and Student Life.

Nos Veremos!

Maybe we'll cure cancer without your help, but don't bet your life on it.

The way it stands today, one American out of four will someday have cancer. That means it will strike some member in two out of three American families.

To change those statistics we have to bring the promise of research to everyday reality. And to expand our detection programs and techniques. And that takes money. Lots of money. Money we won't have—unless you help us.

The American Cancer Society will never give up the fight. Maybe we'll find the answers even without your help. But don't bet your life on it.
